Washington Stamp Collectors Club

Issue #2, Spring 2011

President's Message

Greetings 2011 and greetings WSCC! This is Tadas Osmolskis, your newly-elected president. While my "campaign" might not have indicated it, I am glad to have this chance to serve the Washington Stamp Collectors' Club.

The Club's extensive program schedule, laid out for the next year by Program Chairman Daniel Piazza will both entertain and educate us. Good programs are the point of a good stamp club. While there is necessary business that needs to be taken care of, it shouldn't get in the way of enjoying philately, enjoying the club and, most importantly, enjoying each other. I've been trying to move necessary business along without neglecting it or allowing it to descend into acrimonious argument. Armed with the mighty Hammer of the President, I pledge to do my best for the club over the next year.

Blogging Our Stamp Club

After a bit of a slow start, the Washington City Despatch Blog has been really taking off. With the help of Associate Editors Ida Marie Giusti and Tanika Williams, we've made dozens of posts. We've also had close to 1,400 hits since launching in May of 2010. The blog has 78 posts, 20 different categories and three pages for different programs. We've had some interesting posts, and I'm looking forward to making more. If you've got internet access, check out the blog. It's really quite exciting and launching philately head-long into the 21st century: <http://wscdespatch.wordpress.com/>.
